Valles Caldera Trust Changes Venue Upcoming Board Meeting

Jemez Springs, NM- The Valles Caldera Trust Board of Trustees meeting scheduled for May 12-13 in Farmington, N.M. will instead be held at the Valles Caldera's new Science and Education Center in Jemez Springs those same days. The Board of Trustees changed venues to combine the board meeting with the Grand Opening of the Science and Education Center the afternoon of May 13th. The Board of Trustees will hold their meeting in public from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon. on May 13th. At 1:00 pm the Trustees will host a ribbon cutting ceremony and open house tour of the Science and Education Center for the public. The Board of Trustees meeting will resume from 2:30 pm to 3:30 pm with a public comment session in the large conference room of the Center.

The address is 90 Villa Louis Martin, Jemez Springs, New Mexico 87025 which is the first left turn going north after the Jemez National Monument on NM Highway 4 approximately 18.1 miles from the NM Highway 550 turnoff. The Board of Trustees apologizes for any inconvenience this venue change may cause the public.
